Mendhi for me is creativity, imagination and uniqueness. It is an art that requires dedication, hard work and ingenuity which makes my Mendhi designs that much more distinctive. With over 10 years' experience, the designs I create can be as intricate as possible to cater for the traditional bride as well as contemporary for those who want a more modern look.

Monica Gibson

E: monica@monicagibson.co.uk

Monica's commitment to this age old profession of calligraphy handwriting is exemplary, and by treating her writing as an art form, as an expression of divinity and never settling for anything but the very best, she has superseded her peers in this very niche market

With her dedicated, structured approach and vocational appeal, she has been able to provide a very select range of styles and enhancements. She specialises in all fonts, sizes, ink colours and scripts and her ultimate passion is undertaking each job with vigour and intensity

A bride and groom are making a personal statement the moment their wedding invitation drops through a guest's letterbox, giving a glimpse of the celebrations ahead.

Ananya understands how individual and memorable this special day needs to be. So our wedding stationery can be commissioned to fulfil couples' special wishes, featuring particular colours and theming. We can create a motif of significance to the engaged pair and weave a design around it – for example an indication of where they first met.
